

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: Kristin Hogle
410-265-7400, ext. 111
communications@homebuilders.org

Doug Kelly Named Remodeling Associate of the Year

(BALTIMORE) – November 19, 2009 – The remodelers council of the Home Builders Association of Maryland has awarded the remodelers council associate of the year award to Doug Kelly, vice president of sales and marketing for TW Perry based in Gaithersburg, Maryland.

Doug started at TW Perry as a contractor sales representative in 1997 and soon was promoted as the Gaithersburg sales manager. He has also worked for 84 Lumber Company; where his jobs have included management trainee, co-manager and store manager and contractor sales representative. In his current role, his responsibilities include: sales team management and development; customer relationship development; industry activities; brand awareness and sales and marketing Initiatives.

Doug continuously attends industry related trainings and has received certified trainings from Wharton Essentials of Management Program and Darden Financial Management; in addition he received the 1998 TW Perry Employee of the Year. Doug has worked in the building industry for 22 years. He currently resides in New Market, Maryland is married with 5 sons. In his spare time, Doug enjoys going fishing on the Chesapeake.

The Home Builders Association of Maryland is a not-for-profit association that provides governmental relations, educational opportunities and generally functions as a housing industry advocate. HBAM consists of 1,200 member firms, including home builders, commercial and industrial builders, remodelers, material suppliers, sub-contractors, lending institutions, developers, manufacturers, utilities, Realtors and architects from across the central Maryland region. Visit www.mdremodelers.org for more information.

- ### -